In the Name of God, the Beneficent, the Merciful

ANNEX ON POWER SHARING

This Annex on Power Sharing forms part of the Framework Agreement on the Bangsamoro between the Government of the Republic of the Philippines (GPH) and the Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF). It contains details about the particular competencies and authorities of the Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government which shall serve as guide in the drafting of the Basic Law pursuant to the Framework Agreement on the Bangsamoro.

The Framework Agreement delineates powers at different levels. The Central Government will have its reserved powers, the Bangsamoro Government will have its exclusive powers within its territorial jurisdiction, and there will be concurrent powers shared by the Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government. The delineation of reserved, concurrent, and exclusive powers is provided in Part Three of this Annex, and is guided by the processes established under the Framework Agreement.

"Reserved powers" are powers or matters over which authority and jurisdiction are retained by the Central Government.

"Concurrent powers" shall refer to the shared powers between the Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government, as contained in this Annex and as shall be further provided in the Bangsamoro Basic Law.

"Exclusive powers" shall refer to powers or matters over which authority and jurisdiction pertain to the Bangsamoro Government.

PART ONE

INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

The following points on intergovernmental relations, among others, will govern the relationship between the Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government and its constituent units. Issues arising from the exercise of powers shall be resolved through the mechanism of intergovernmental relations below:
1. The relationship between the Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government is asymmetric. This relation is reflective of the recognition of the Bangsamoro identity and their aspiration for self-governance. This makes it distinct from the regions and other local governments.

2. The Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government shall be guided by the principle of parity of esteem and accepted norms of good governance. The Central Government shall respect the exercise of the competencies or exclusive powers of the Bangsamoro Government. The Bangsamoro Government shall respect the exercise of the competencies and reserved powers of the Central Government in the Bangsamoro.

3. The Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government shall establish a mechanism at the highest levels that will coordinate and harmonize their relationships. For this purpose, a primary mechanism shall be a Central Government – Bangsamoro Government Intergovernmental Relations body to resolve issues on intergovernmental relations. Disputes relating to these intergovernmental relations shall be resolved through regular consultations and continuing negotiations in a non-adversarial manner.

4. The Parties accept the concept of devolution as inspired by the principle of subsidiarity. Decisions are to be made at the appropriate level to ensure public accountability and transparency, and in consideration of good governance and the general welfare.

5. Devolution will involve a process of empowerment, mobilization, capacity building and financing that can be strengthened by strong cooperation and partnership between the Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government.

6. The authority to regulate on its own responsibility the affairs of the local government units (LGUs) is guaranteed within the limit of the Bangsamoro Basic Law. The privileges already enjoyed by the LGUs under existing laws shall not be diminished unless otherwise altered, modified or reformed for good governance pursuant to the provisions of the Bangsamoro local government code.

7. As a matter of policy, the Central Government shall ensure the participation and representation of the Bangsamoro in national agencies and other Central Government instrumentalities through the intergovernmental relations mechanism. The Bangsamoro Basic Law shall provide for the appointment of Bangsamoros to positions provided under Republic Act No. 9054 (R.A. No. 9054).
The Bangsamoro Transition Commission may also propose other modalities for Bangsamoro representation as part of its set of recommendations for constitutional amendments.

PART TWO

GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

Bangsamoro Ministerial Government

1. The Bangsamoro shall have a democratically-elected assembly consistent with the principles of a ministerial form of government. The Bangsamoro Transition Commission may provide for the name of the assembly in the Bangsamoro Basic Law;

2. The Bangsamoro assembly shall be representative of the Bangsamoro's constituent political units, as well as non-Moro indigenous communities, women, settler communities, and other sectors. The Bangsamoro Basic Law shall ensure that representation in the assembly reflects the diversity of the Bangsamoro;

3. The Bangsamoro assembly will be composed of at least 50 members whose district, party-list, reserved seats, and sectoral constituencies shall be provided in the Bangsamoro Basic Law. The Bangsamoro Basic Law shall provide for the term of office and the manner of selection of sectoral representatives, party-list, and reserved seats. The Bangsamoro Basic Law shall provide the parameters for the assembly to reconstitute its districts;

4. The Parties agree to entrench an electoral system suitable to a ministerial form of government. The electoral system shall allow democratic participation, ensure accountability of public officers primarily to their constituents and encourage formation of genuinely principled political parties. The electoral system shall be contained in the Bangsamoro Basic Law to be implemented through legislation enacted by the Bangsamoro Government and correlated with national laws;

5. The Bangsamoro cabinet shall be composed of the Chief Minister, a Deputy Chief Minister, and such other ministers necessary to perform the functions of government. The Chief Minister shall be elected by majority votes from among the members of the assembly and shall exercise executive authority on its behalf. The Chief Minister shall appoint the Deputy Chief Minister from among the elected members of the assembly and the rest of ministers, majority of whom shall also come from among the members of the assembly;
6. The Bangsamoro assembly may remove the government of the day by a vote of no confidence of at least two-thirds of the assembly, in which case the government shall be reconstituted in accordance with the principles of a ministerial form of government. The Bangsamoro Basic Law shall provide for the manner of reconstitution;

7. There shall be a Bangsamoro council of leaders composed of the Chief Minister, provincial governors, mayors of chartered cities, and a representative each of the non-Moro indigenous communities, women, settler communities, and other sectors. The Bangsamoro council of leaders shall be chaired by the Chief Minister;

8. The ministers shall constitute the cabinet, which will be convened and presided over by the Chief Minister, or in his or her absence and with his or her consent, the Deputy Chief Minister;

9. There shall be a Philippine Congress – Bangsamoro assembly forum for purposes of cooperation and coordination of legislative initiatives.

PART FOUR OTHER MATTERS PERTAINING TO POWER SHARING

1. Transportation and Communications

On transportation and communications, the Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government shall have reserved, concurrent, and exclusive powers, based on the following principles:

- Subsidiarity
- Technical and financial viability
- Harmonization: uniform system concept
- Compliance with international standards, treaties and conventions
- Mutual respect and recognition
- Recognition of the aspiration of the Bangsamoro to assume further powers as may be practically operational as its capacity develops.

The Bangsamoro Basic Law shall delineate the appropriate powers that the Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government shall exercise on transportation and communications. All revenues derived by the Bangsamoro Government from the exercise of its exclusive and concurrent powers, taking into account any administrative costs to the Central Government agencies, shall pertain to the Bangsamoro Government.

The Bangsamoro Basic Law shall provide for an intergovernmental body to harmonize policies, programs, regulations and standards, and to resolve problems of implementation between the Central Government and the Bangsamoro Government.

2. Mineral and Energy Resources

The Bangsamoro Government shall have authority and jurisdiction over the exploration, development, and utilization of mines and minerals in its territory. The applications for financial and technical assistance agreements (FTAAEs) shall be commenced at and recommended by the Bangsamoro Government to the President. The Bangsamoro Government and the Central Government shall jointly exercise the power to grant rights, privileges and concessions over the exploration, development and utilization of fossil fuels (petroleum, natural gas, and coal) and uranium in the Bangsamoro, giving preferential rights to qualified citizens who are bona fide inhabitants of the Bangsamoro. The modalities for the exercise of this power shall be provided in the Bangsamoro Basic Law. Implementing rules and regulations for the exercise of this power, including safeguards against potential unfair business practices, shall be jointly drawn up.

3. Taxation

The Central Government shall continue to levy national taxes in the Bangsamoro. The Bangsamoro Government shall also have the power to levy taxes, as provided in the Annex on Revenue Generation and Wealth Sharing.

4. Powers Already Devolved

All other powers granted to the Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao (ARMM) which are relevant to the Framework Agreement on the Bangsamoro shall be transferred to the Bangsamoro Government.

As part of the Philippine Government commitment in other peace agreements involving the Bangsamoro, the Bangsamoro Basic Law may adopt specific powers contained in these agreements and in the ARMM Organic Law, as amended.

The Bangsamoro Transition Commission shall undertake an inventory of the powers and consider the proposed recommendations from the review process of the 1996 Final Peace Agreement between the Government and the Moro National Liberation Front for possible incorporation into the Bangsamoro Basic Law. It shall also take into account the proposed amendments of the ARMM Regional Legislative Assembly to R.A. No. 9054.
